“Promoting the art of quilting through sharing, friendship, education, and meaningful service to our community.”

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I do hope you were able to make the September meeting. Sue Rasmussen was so informative about needles and threads. As soon as I have room in my freezer I will put my fancy thread in it.

I'm looking forward to cooler weather so I can finish my holiday projects; it's hard to work when it is so hot.

Look forward to seeing everyone at the October meeting.

Barbara Montejo

BLOCK OF THE MONTH

Gale Gleim was the winner of the fat quarters for making a block for community service. Thank you.

The block for November is an easy block in just red and white. Do give it a try.

PROGRAMS

I hope everyone enjoyed our September speaker Sue Rasmussen, she had some great information and I hope you all enjoyed her talk as much as I did. Those of us who took the workshop got a great start on our landscapes and I hope to see some of them at show and share in October.

We will be having community service for our meeting this October, I am sure that Helena and Dana will be letting you know more about that in their article.

In November we will have Cathy Van Bruggen as our speaker, she will be speaking on "Color Confidence" and then we will be having a workshop where Cathy will share her method of appliqué. Cathy will have kits for all those who wish to purchase the kit for the workshop "Hummingbird Delight" available at the meeting and the workshop. She has requested an approximate count so she will know how many to bring. If you are planning to take the workshop please let me know at the October meeting so I can send her a count. The kits are $40.00 or if you prefer to use your own fabric you can purchase the pattern for $10.00.

Cathy's website is www.cathyvb.com if you would like to take a look at her work.

At our September meeting Sue Rasmussen had mentioned a Universal Threadholder that works for large cones of thread no matter how it is wound. She also brought a sample to the workshop. Here is a promotion that the owner is willing to give our members per an email I received from Sue.

John Schunck -- RJS Designs Inc.

"Dear Sue: if you would like to inform your students to let me know that they were recommended by you (they can leave a comment when ordering) I will throw in a free peel and stick thread cutter. A $5.00 value.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Our October meeting is a Community Service Sew Night. We'll have the usual information on upcoming events, Show and Share of our latest creations and Membership and Ways and Means drawings. But we also have a chance to do some spur of the moment sewing and contribute to our guild and community at the same time.

This is what it's all about ♥♥♥♥

Community Service Sew Night

We will have all of the supplies for making placemats for our Seniors. We will bring irons and boards. All you need to bring is your creative spirit and your sewing machine and notions. We have a few mats that need to have the binding sewn on by hand for those of you who wish to do so.

The Community Service Sew Night provides us with an opportunity to do some quick sewing. We also get to visit with old friends and new friends in our guild membership and lend a hand to others as well.

Looking forward to seeing all of you!
Dana and Helena

QUILT SHOW 2012

Don't forget, we have a place and a date for our quilt show: Saturday April 21, 2012 at a lovely space in the Blessed Kateri Tekakwitha church on Copperhill at Seco, keep the date open.

NOTE FROM PROGRAMS

This is a call for volunteers; to make our annual Holiday Party the party we have all come to expect and enjoy. We need our guild members to step up and help. It is not hard but takes a few people to make it work.

Please contact Eddie Moore or Barbara Montejo and let us know what you can do to help so we can all have a great time this December!
